

Pauline Slater - aged 86 years in 2010.

I came to Wales from near Derby in 1987. Initially we lived at the top of the Horseshoe, then in Rhewl. Now we live in one of the bungalows in Llantysilio.

We wanted to live in the countryside, but Derbyshire had become too expensive. Initially, whilst looking, we stayed in a caravan at Chirk Castle. We lived in one of two cottages with a shared drive when up the Horseshoe. We were often snowed in.
